

COOK COUNTY SHERIFF'S MERIT BOARD

Sheriff of Cook County vs.

Steven Cruz
Correctional Officer

Docket No. 1775

Decision

This matter coming on to be heard pursuant to the Order of Remand for additional findings of facts supporting the decision of the Cook County Sheriff's Merit Board to terminate Respondent Correctional Officer Steven Cruz. The following additional findings are made by the Cook County Sheriff's Merit Board:

The Cook County Sheriff's Merit Board issued its original decision on this matter on May 2, 2016 terminating the Respondent Steven Cruz, Correctional Officer, and setting forth in detail the rules, regulations and violations that were charged in the complaint, as well as a detailed exposition of the evidence through witness testimony and documents admitted into evidence. The Cook County Sheriff's Merit Board on remand reviewed the Appellate Court Opinion in Cruz V. Dart 2019 IL App (1st) 170915.

The Board found that CO Steven Cruz violated Sheriff's orders 11.2.1.0, 11.2.4.0 General Orders 24.9.1.0 Article X Paragraph B of the Merit Board Rules.

The Board finds that the following facts, in addition to the factual findings contained in the original decision, support a termination in this case:

That on January 13, 2012 at approximately 16:09 hours, while on duty in RCDC of the CCDOC, Respondent used excessive force against detainee [REDACTED] by pushing detainee [REDACTED] with both hands to the chest twice and deploying Oleoresin Capsicum ("OC") spray directly into the face and eyes of detainee [REDACTED] without warning, as detainee [REDACTED] was being held from behind by Correctional Officer ("C/O") [REDACTED] in a headlock.

Respondent completed a Use of Force Report, an Incident Report and an Inmate Disciplinary Report. In the narrative of all three reports, Respondent failed to document that he pushed detainee [REDACTED] twice with both hands or that Respondent immediately deployed OC spray to detainee [REDACTED]'s face and eyes without warning, as detainee [REDACTED] was being held from behind by C/O [REDACTED] in a headlock. In addition, in the narrative of all three reports, Respondent falsely documented that detainee [REDACTED] was attempting to escape when Respondent deployed the OC spray into detainee [REDACTED]'s face and eyes.

The videotape recording from a stationary camera in RCDC of January 13, 2012 shows Respondent approaching detainee [REDACTED], standing in front of detainee [REDACTED] and pushing detainee [REDACTED] with both hands to the chest. The videotape recording then shows detainee [REDACTED] attempting to walk around the Respondent and Respondent standing in detainee [REDACTED]'s way. The videotape recording then shows Respondent pushing detainee [REDACTED] with both hands to the chest a second time. The videotape recording then shows C/O [REDACTED] walking up behind detainee [REDACTED] and holding detainee [REDACTED] in a headlock using his right arm. The videotape recording then shows Respondent taking out the OC spray, approaching detainee [REDACTED] and immediately deploying the

OC spray directly into the face and eyes of detainee [REDACTED] as detainee [REDACTED] is being held by C/O [REDACTED] from behind in a headlock and while detainee [REDACTED]'s arms are inside of his sweater and at his side

On March 10, 2014, Respondent falsely reported to investigators from the OPR that on January 13, 2012, he told detainee [REDACTED] to "stop resisting" a couple of times and to "stop resisting or [detainee [REDACTED]] was going to be sprayed with OC." Respondent falsely reported that on January 13, 2012, detainee [REDACTED] continued to fight against C/O [REDACTED]'s hold and Respondent deployed OC spray at that time. Respondent was shown the videotape recording of the incident on January 13, 2012, Respondent falsely reported to investigators from the OPR that he walked over to detainee [REDACTED] to escort the detainee. Respondent falsely reported to investigators from the OPR that on January 13, 2012, detainee [REDACTED] continued to resist and tried to escape C/O [REDACTED]'s hold and that Respondent told detainee [REDACTED] to stop resisting or he would be sprayed.

The policy is clear. Officers shall use an amount of force reasonable and necessary based on the totality of the circumstances to perform a lawful task, effect an arrest, overcome resistance, control a subject, or protect the officer(s) or others from injury, as specified by federal/Illinois statutes and case law.

The CCSO utilizes the Use of Force Model (2010) – John C. Desmedt and Protective Safety Systems Incorporated to provide guidance on the appropriate amount of force to be used to effect a lawful purpose and to articulate a detailed report on the officer's actions. The Use of Force model employs the progressive and reasonable escalation and de-escalation of officer applied force in proportional response to the actions and level of resistance offered by a subject.

Every use of force greater than social control, officer presence or verbal control must be reported as outlined in this directive. Officers shall not unreasonably endanger themselves or another person to conform to the restrictions of this directive.

V. DEFINITIONS

E. Excessive force – The application of an unreasonable amount of force in a given incident based on the totality of the circumstances.

VII. GUIDELINES

A. The primary objective of the use of force is to ensure control of a subject with only the amount of reasonable force necessary based on the totality of circumstances and to gain compliance of the subject as safely and quickly as possible.

B. Officers are authorized to use only the amount of force necessary to effect lawful objectives. The determination of what is or is not reasonable force is based on each individual situation and is a decision that the involved officer must make based on the totality of the circumstances.

Order

Based on the evidence presented, and after assessing the credibility of witnesses and the weight given to the evidence in the record, the Board finds, by a preponderance of the evidence, that Correctional Officer Steven Cruz violated Sheriff's orders, 11.2.1.0, 11.2 .20 General Orders 24.9.1.0 and 9.21 and Article X

Paragraph B of the Merit Board Rules and Regulations and that termination is warranted, effective August 4, 2014.

No Police Officer of the Cook County Sheriff's Police Department, Correctional Officer of the Cook County Department of Corrections or Deputy Sheriff of the Cook County Sheriff's Court Services Department will:

1. violate any Law or Statute of any State or of the United States of America.
2. violate any Ordinance of any County or Municipal Government.
3. violate any of the general orders, special orders, directives or rules and regulations of the Cook County Sheriff's Department.

Issues Presented: Whether the actions of the Respondent violated any of the General Orders and Rules and Regulations set forth above and what if any discipline is appropriate if a violation occurred.

Findings of Fact: Evidentiary hearings on this matter were held on February 11, 2016 and March 1, 2016. Present were Assistant State's Attorney Matthew Kaminski on behalf of the Sheriff and Miriam Santiago, Assistant General Counsel for the Sheriff of Cook County. Nicole Chaney appeared on behalf of Respondent Steven Cruz who was also present.

Four witnesses testified for the Sheriff, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. One witness testified for the Respondent [REDACTED] the respondent Steven Cruz also testified.

DIRECT EXAMINATION

Witness [REDACTED] testified at the relevant times. Investigator, Office of Professional Review at the Cook County Sheriff's Office. She is familiar with the Sheriff's General Order 11.2.1.0 with the response to resistance/use of force. She has conducted investigations involved with the use of OC spray. OC spray is considered as a use of force. For the officer to use OC spray the detainee must be a moving resister. If the detainee is moving to avoid the officer trying to gain physical control of them, that is usually considered a moving resister.

[REDACTED] was not the chief investigator on this case she was the secondary investigator. She sat in with Commander [REDACTED] when he conducted the interview of Officer Cruz. As part of her investigation she reviewed the video of the incident. In her review of the video she could see Officer [REDACTED] has his right arm around the chest and neck area of the detainee and is kind of holding him back. Officer Cruz is standing in front of the detainee. At this point he's not resisting the officers' efforts to gain control of him, he's not pulling away. She wouldn't classify him as being totally cooperative because it's partially due to Officer [REDACTED] physical restraint of his person.

CROSS EXAMINATION

Investigator [REDACTED] testified, she was never employed as a correctional officer. She did have training relating to the deployment of OC spray. Sheriff's Order 11.2.4.0, the use of oleoresin capicum, OC spray, may be used when verbal dialogue has failed to bring about the subject's compliance and the subject has signaled his intention to actively resist the officer's efforts to take lawful control." OC spray is approved for a moving resister.

Investigator [REDACTED] testified that after Officer [REDACTED] placed the detainee in a hold, she would identify the detainee as being a cooperative subject at that point. She did not see the detainee offering any additional resistance. She cannot say what force he was offering or the amount of pressure that the detainee was applying.

DIRECT EXAMINATION

██████████ testified, ██████████ Previously worked in Division 9 and RCDC intake. Inmate ██████████ was going through the intake area, he heard the inmate having a verbal exchange with Officer Cruz. As he was walking towards the officer and the inmate, he noticed the inmate make contact with the officer in the chest area of the officer with his own chest. As the words were being exchanged between the officer and the inmate, the inmate seemed agitated, he then physically intervened by pulling the inmate away from Officer Cruz. The inmate was trying to resist his effort to bringing him away from the officer.. As he was trying to restrain him, pulling him backwards, to pull him away from the officer, the inmate was stiffening his body. As ██████████ was grabbing him physically to restrain him Officer Cruz deployed OC spray.

CROSS EXAMINATION

Officer ██████████ testified, that he couldn't hear exactly what was being said between Officer Cruz and the detainee at the start of the incident. In his response to resistance/use of force form that he filled out he wrote, "R/O ordered ██████████ to go back to the bullpen." Inmate ██████████ ignored him and Officer Cruz on the order to go back to the bullpen. His report also mentioned the chest bump to Officer Cruz. He also documented that detainee ██████████ attempted to escape from him. He was not a cooperative subject. He did not feel the detainee as being compliant at any time prior to the deployment of OC.

DIRECT EXAMINATION

██████████ testified, he is a lieutenant, Cook County Sheriff's Department. He did not remember an incident with detainee ██████████ involving the use of force with Officer ██████████ and Officer Cruz.

CROSS EXAMINATION

Lieutenant ██████████ can't recall the incident. His signature was on the complaint report as the "Reviewing Supervisor."

DIRECT EXAMINATION

██████████ testified, he is employed with the Cook County Department of Corrections as a correctional officer. He was working in receiving on January 13, 2012. He did not recall an incident, between Officer Cruz and detainee ██████████ In his review of the video on that day he stated he was working at the time of the incident. He was not interviewed by OPR about the incident.

DIRECT EXAMINATION

Steven Cruz the respondent testified, he is on Administrative leave, he was employed as a correctional officer. He has no previous disciplinary history. He had a previous incident with an inmate, the inmate grabbed him and he suffered an injury. He was out of work for a while. ██████████

██████████. He informed his sergeant and Lieutenant ██████████
██████████.

He has been trained every year on the "Integrated Use of Force Model." He knows the difference between a cooperative subject or assailant. He also understands that OC spray cannot be used for a non-moving resister.

On January 13, 2012 detainee ██████████ was told to move to the bullpen. He did not comply with the order and told Officer Cruz "Shut the fuck up bitch." When Officer Cruz approached him, detainee ██████████ bumped him with his chest. Officer Cruz then pushed him back. Detainee ██████████ kept yelling at him. Officer Cruz warned him to relax or he was going to get sprayed. Officer Cruz from his past experience got scared and thought he was going to get hit, he pushed him back again. Officer ██████████ and ██████████ came over to help him. Officer ██████████ grabbed him across the shoulder and pulled him back. Detainee ██████████ was struggling, trying to get out of hold from Officer ██████████.

He warned him again that he would spray him, if he continued to struggle. At that point he used his OC spray. He felt by spraying him they could get control of the situation.

March 10, 2014, he was brought in to OPR as an accused for an administrative interrogation on the use of excessive force.

CROSS EXAMINATION

Officer Cruz testified he categorized the detainee as a moving resister, that is why he used OC spray. ██████████

He never wrote any To/From memorandums ██████████
██████████. He gave the paperwork to his sergeant on the first day that he got back to work and he spoke to his lieutenant.

In his review of the video from the incident, at 9:12 the detainee said "Shut the fuck up, bitch." As the detainee walked towards him the chest bump occurs, a second chest bump occurs, Officer Cruz then pushes the detainee. At this point the detainee has taken off a black quarter-zipper hoodie. Officer ██████████ puts his arm around the shoulder and the upper chest of the detainee. Officer ██████████ then walks him all the way back to that pit area. Officer Cruz then deployed the OC spray.

Officer Cruz testified all of the reports were written by Officer ██████████ because his eyes were still effected by the spray. He did put his signature on the reports.

He was able to speak to Officer ██████████ and could have dictated to him what to write in the report, the use of force report, does not describe the second push. Each of the reports were read aloud to him by Officer ██████████.

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

Officer Cruz at the time of the incident, did not know the classification of the detainee.

He did you intentionally omit the second push from any of his reports. He was aware that his conduct could be recorded by the video cameras.

In his review of the video detainee ██████████ is supposed to be returning to the bullpen. He didn't respond to the commands. That's when he walked out and started motioning him, to get to the bullpen. The detainee was already agitated. He was not cooperating with his direction. The chest bump then occurs followed by the push back and then the second chest bump. Detainee ██████████ is in the process of removing his hooded sweatshirt and throwing it to the floor. Officer ██████████ then placed his arm around the detainee's shoulders. He kept telling him, Stop resisting, you're going to get sprayed. At that point he sprays the detainee. It was approximately 16 seconds that passed from the push to the OC spray.

Findings of Fact:

Officer Cruz in this incident had an opportunity to deescalate the situation. There was no evidence to show that Officer [REDACTED] had any type of struggle to walk this detainee away. He was in control of the detainee when Officer Cruz sprayed him with OC spray. Correctional Officers are aware that if you violate the use of force general order, that termination is possible, and that is a consequence.

Conclusions of Law: Based on the evidence presented, and after assessing the credibility of witnesses and the weight given by the evidence in the record, the Merit Board finds that the Respondent did violate the Cook County Sheriff's Police Department Rules and Regulations and Cook County Sheriff's Merit Board Rules and Regulations, Article X., Paragraph B
